nu
979.5
K29m
v 2

INDEX.

AUTHOR, his information for colonizing the Oregon Territory,.....3. 4.
the objects of his enterprise,.....51. 52. 58.
spreads information broadcast about the United States,.....70. 84.
labors alone,.....8.
his pioneering services and sacrifices,.....66. 67. 69. 53.
his patience and perseverance,.....84.
the manner his Oregon expedition of 1831, was broken up,.....76.
his losses in New England,.....7. 77.
his losses at New Orleans and Vera Cruz,.....7. 78.
his loss by robbers,.....7.
followed by villains with murderous intentions,.....78.
fell among robbers,.....9.
the press turned against him—abused in periodicals,.....76 objects of his enemies,.....13, 58
objects of his journey through Mexico,.....69
his sufferings during the progress of the work of colonizing Oregon, 12, 60, 61, 69, 84
his hair-breadth escapes,.....9
invited to Texas,
the nature of his journey to the Columbia river,.....52, 69 seized with the fever and ague in the wilderness,.....9, 10
his feeble health,.....8, 12, 51, 73, 74
his trust in God,.....73
his enemies taking advantage of the circumstances of his ill health, abuse him,.....6, 48, 49, 60 afflictions subsequent to his Oregon achievements,.....76, 51 cause o. his delays in Mexico, and the change of route,.....78
marauders join his party,.....10
his voyage down the Umquaw,.....11
his imprisonment,.....14, 55
his baggage overhauled,.....14, 55
his plans for towns and cities in Oregon,.....56 opposed in his attempt to lot out the land at the falls of the Wallamet, for a town, to be occupied by himself and the first emigrants,.....56 his first acquaintance with Capt E. Young,.....54 his expectation of a lot of land in Oregon disappointed,.....4
hostilities renewed against him,.....14
his passage to the Sandwich Islands,.....57, 59, 60
his nervous system shattered,.....9, 85
the partial cause of his diffidence,.....8
his mind enfeebled,.....9, 84
his endeavors to be useful,.....30, 84
his usefulness hindered,.....83
his name, abridged,.....49
reason for attempting his own vindication,.....82

[Boston? 1855?]
Pacific N. W. History Dept.
98072 PROVINCIAL LIBRARY
VICTORIA, B. C.

the effects of a pious mother's instruction received in early youth, upon his course of life,.....82
his political creed,.....83
his memoir to Congress,.....49, 66
his reasons for applying to Congress for help,.....4, 5
his ill-success,.....13
documents and verifying papers lost,.....65
his disposition, projects and achievements misrepresented,.....80, 82 public confidence in his writings and capabilities, imprisonment,.....36 his book entitled "Hard usage at Three Rivers,".....76, 78
his friend at Vancouver,.....48
his life threatened,.....54, 56
ASTOR, J. JACOB, the nature and character of his trading establishment at the mouth of the Columbia river,.....21, 39, 44
ASTORIA, no town,.....21
CLAIMS of American citizens to lands on Quadras Island—concerning it, 14, 15, 20, 34, 37, 39, 40, 42, 65, 68
CLAIM, United States to Oregon, its extent, the grounds and evidences of 17, 42, 43
"material facts," concealed,.....43
public men, deceived concerning it,.....17, 42-44
CLAIM, British, to Oregon,.....29, 39
CLAIM, Spanish, to Oregon,.....22, 38, 39
CLAIM, the author's Mexican.....70, 73, 78
CALIFORNIA, interior settlements of.....5, 70
CHASTISEMENTS, divine.....8, 9
COLUMBIA RIVER, its Indian name,.....8, 9
its discovery by the Spaniards.....18, 20
its re-discovery by Capt R. Gray.....17, 18
CHRISTIANITY,.....26
COMPANY. H. B. the nature of its business in Oregon.....24, 51 its secret fund,.....15
its attempts to break up the settlement formed by the author,.....52-54 cruel policy and unmerciful conduct of its friends toward the author, 12, 14, 16, 51, 53, 54, 56, 66, 76, 79
description of its friends,.....83
the plottings and treachery of its friends against the interests of the United States,.....16, 43, 79
COLONIZATION of Oregon, the best means for bringing it about.....81
a difficult and arduous undertaking,.....3-5 powerfully opposed,.....3, 7, 6 encouraged by members of Congress, and by others,.....3, 4 debts contracted to promote its prosecution,.....6, 72
DIFFIDENCE of the author, partially accounted for,.....84
EDUCATION, attempts by the author to improve its system, and to advance its cause in Mexico,.....70
ENTERPRISE, the author's Oregon, its nature, incipient movements, and results,.....4, 68, 69 its immediate and ultimate objects,.....4, 5, 52 attended with great difficulties and sufferings,.....69
attempts to prevent its progress,.....69, 77, 78 led to other enterprises public and private; and to the settling of the interior of California,.....70, 84 national benefits which might have accrued therefrom.....69, 70
GREENHOW, ROBERT, ill treats the author,.....48, 65, 66, 68
HOWISON, Lieut. government agent to Oregon, deceived,.....62
INDIANS, American, came from the eastern parts of Asia,.....20 good devised for the Indians west of the Rocky Mountains,..4, 70, 71, 80 pills made to kill Indians,.....57

arsenic plentifully administered to Indians in California and Oregon; thousands of them, men, women and children murdered, about the year 1832, KENDRICK, Capt. JOHN, the purchases of land by him from Indian chiefs on the coast of Oregon, ...34, 37, 39, 40
LAFLAMBOIS, Capt., his humanity towards the author, ...11
LEE, JASON, deceased,
LEE, DANIEL, the author slandered by him, and made the victim of his book, called "Ten years in Oregon," 46, 50
LECTURE, a certain, and cunningly devised one, ...39, 43, 44
MC'LAUGHLIN, Doct. JOHN, his attempts to break up the nucleus of the settlements in Oregon, and to drive the author from that territory, ...51, 52, 58
MISSION, Methodist, the author was its founder, ...45, 47, 50
MISSIONARIES, faithful, ...50
MEARS, Capt. JOHN, a British subject, his pretended purchase of land at Nootka, 30, 37 his memorial to Parliament, ...33
"OREGON QUESTION," the chief cause of difficulties in settling, ...17, 42
PUGETS SOUND, affords an excellent position for a terminus of some railroad that shall cross the Continent, ...71
PROVIDENCES, remarkable, ...8-10, 12
PERSECUTIONS, terrible, ...13, 45, 46, 49, 51, 76, 78, 86
motives which actuated and infuriated it, ...14
QUADRAS ISLAND, the largest and best portion of, purchased by certain American citizens, ...17, 43
RAILROADS, their utility, ...75
projections and surveys of, by the author, ...70, 71, 73, 74, 77
RONDEAU, his fidelity to the author, ...11
SETTLEMENTS, the first in Oregon; the author formed them, and contracted for supplies to be brought to them, ...48, 57, 67
SPAIN, receives from the Indian chiefs a conveyance by deed of a portion of Quadros Island, ...34, 37, 39
SPANIARDS, their early visits to the N. W. Coast, ...28, 38 take early possession of the coast of Oregon, ...26 their attempts to colonize Quadras Island, ...25, 27, 35, 39, 44, 75
STRAITS, DEFUCA, its eligibility for navigation, and natural advantages about its shores for commerce, ...71
SLACUM, Lieut. deceived, ...62
his report to the State Department, ...62, 63
TREATY, Nootka, between Great Britain and Spain, ...40, 41
THOMPSON, Capt. conditionally engaged to carry supplies to the author's settlements, and to employ his vessel in the trade of Oregon, ...57
YOUNG, Capt. EWING, the leading man of the author's party into Oregon, 10, 54 character of, ...54-56
deceived concerning the author, ...54 threatened by letter the author's life, ...54 his written statement to Lieut. Slocum giving a reason for his and the party's settling in Oregon, ...53, 55

APPENDIX.

Letter from the author to J. B. Thornton, Esq., concerning things in Mexico—protection afforded travelers—cholera—civil commotions—the government not sufficiently arbitrary—President Santa Anna true to his country—education—the author's endeavors to improve the system of school instruction, ...87-89
Education, the author identified with.....88, 89
Vaccination among the Mexican Indians,.....89
California, preparatory measures for the settlement of.....89 extracts of a letter to President Santa Anna relative to the settlement of 89, 90
the reply of the governor of the Californias to the author relative to a survey of the upper portion of.....91, 92

SUPPLEMENTAL INDEX.

The Author's acknowledgments of the civilities and favours from countrymen on the other side of the continent.

A

The origin of the colonizing settlements, and TESTIMONIALS in behalf of the author.

B

Outlines of a plan for ameliorating the condition of Indians. See p. 73

C

Projection of a railroad from the Mississippi river to the Pacific Ocean. See p. 73

D

Remarks, supporting the claim to the lands purchased by Capt Kendrick, and showing the reasonableness of a public confirmation of the title.

E

A copy of the author's petition to Congress, in 1854.

F

Useful information relative to the colonization of Oregon, suppressed.

G

The author's triumphs in trials of scientific knowledge with British sea captains.

H

Answers to geometrical and puzzling questions

I

A brutal attack upon the reputation of the author, soon after his return from Oregon.

K

SCHEDULE of books and papers put into the possession of committees and members of Congress, showing facts and falsities relative to the colonization of Oregon.

L

A plan for cities in Oregon, drawn by the author in 1851.

M

A portion of a book published some years ago, chiefly composed of abstracts from the author's journal with an appendix.

CHAPTER I.

The first settlement of Oregon—Diffusion of information—Persons enlisted—Expeditions contemplated—The author abused—Departure from Boston—Separation from beloved ones—Attempts to prevent progress—Loss of funds—Delay in New York—Two villains join the party—Means for doing good—Public and private patronage—Troubles in New Orleans—Passage to Vera Cruz—An ignorant and cruel sea captain—Great sufferings—A hair-breadth escape from shipwreck.

CHAPTER II.

Baggage deposited for safe keeping in the custom house of Vera Cruz—Lovett comes to greet—Treachery—An attempt to steal from the author a portion of his property—Smuggling by Revenue Officers—Bodily debility—Sojourn at Vera Cruz—Cause of delay of journey--Baggage called for, and refused—not dutiable. Things composing the baggage—its destination—Inducement of the circuitous route to Oregon. The author's passport from the Chief Executive of the United States secured him no protection in Mexico—Obligations of indemnity for the plunder of travelers property rest somewhere—The city of Jalapa.

N

REMARKS

concerning the introduction of the first Missionaries into Oregon.

O

TESTIMONIAL.

P

Two articles concerning the author's spirit of enterprise and benevolence from the pen of a friend at Washington.

Q

TESTIMONIALS.

R

PETITION OF THE CITIZENS OF BOSTON.

S

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

T

HISTORICAL REMARKS CONCERNING THE INDIANS OF NORTH AMERICA.

U

DISSERTATION ON CHRISTIANITY.

ed—not duti-
nt of the cir-Executive of
ns of indem-
of Jalapa.

om the pen of

ERICA.